About EMAS

EMAS was founded in 1986 by service providers in cleaning, pest control and waste management industries.

Our mission is to provide a cohesive platform to address firms' common challenges and strive to uplift our industry's professionalism by organizing activities to upskill as well as networking sessions for our members.

EMAS is represented in NTUC's Tripartite Cleaning Cluster, MOM's Tripartite Committee For Low Wage Workers and Inclusive Growth, NEA's Public Hygiene Council, MOM's Workplace Safety and Health Council and NEA's Cleaning Sectoral Tripartite Committee.

Our association has been actively promoting Licensing and Accreditation of the cleaning industry since the regulation came into effect in 2014. We are supportive of the Progressive Wage Model scheme to improve the livelihood our employees.

EMAS will continue to be the conduit for industry players to engage the government, service buyers and the union.

Our Government Agencies, Unions and Partners; Ministry of Health (MOH), National Environment Agency (NEA), Workforce Singapore (WSG), Ministry of Manpower (MOM), Enterprise Singapore (ESG), SPRING Singapore, Workplace Safety and Health Council (WSHC), Housing Development Board (HDB), Institution Of Engineers (IES), Building Construction and Timber Industries Employees' Union (BATU), Building & Construction Authority (BCA), National Trades Union Congress (U SME), FMCG Spore Chemical Industry Council, International Facility Management Association (IFMA).

OBJECTIVES

- To promote and expand, the business of environmental hygiene services
- To study and address environmental hygiene industry concerns and issues
